6. Term and Termination.

6.1 Term. The term of this Agreement will begin on the Effective Date and will continue until terminated as specified herein.

6.2 Termination.

(a) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of Customer and CMRI.

(b) CMRI may terminate this Agreement if Customer materially breaches this Agreement or if any individual who uses the Services under the license granted to Customer hereunder fails to comply with the Terms of Service and Customer does not take such measures as may be reasonably required by CMRI to suspend such individual's access to the Services.

(c) Customer may terminate any Service Order (or portion thereof) and/or this Agreement in its entirety if CMRI materially breaches this Agreement and does not cure such breach within 30 days after receipt of written notice specifying the nature of such breach; provided, however, that if such breach cannot be reasonably cured within such 30 day period, CMRI shall have such longer period as may be reasonable to cure such breach before Customer may exercise its termination rights hereunder.

(d) This Agreement shall terminate automatically without the necessity of notice to either party in the event that CMRI is not providing any Services to Customer for a period of 12 consecutive months and there are no outstanding Service Orders pursuant to which Services have been ordered by Customer.

(e) Termination of this Agreement by either party shall result in termination of all Service Orders issued under this Agreement. Termination of any Service Order will not terminate this Agreement or any other Service Order issued under this Agreement.

6.3 Effect of Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement or of any Service Order (other than for CMRI's breach), CMRI shall be entitled to payment for Services provided up to the date of such termination, not to exceed the rates or fees specified in the applicable Service Order. CMRI shall have no obligation to refund any amounts paid to CMRI prior to the effective date of such termination. In the event that this Agreement is terminated by CMRI pursuant to Section 6.2(a) above, CMRI shall be entitled to seek such remedies as may be available pursuant to applicable law, including payment of all amounts that would have become due and payable for the remainder of the term of this Agreement but for Customer's breach of the terms hereof and CMRI's election to terminate this Agreement on account thereof.

7. Confidential Information.

7.1 If the parties have previously executed a written non-disclosure, confidentiality or similar agreement relating to the exchange of confidential information between them ("NDA") such NDA shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms and such terms are hereby incorporated herein. Where there is any conflict between the NDA and this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall control.

7.2 "Confidential Information" means all non-public information provided or revealed by one Party ("Discloser") to the other Party ("Recipient") or otherwise learned by a Party during the course of performance under this Agreement, including without limitation software, programs, prices, processes, requirements, documentation, developments, and bank account, credit card, financial, marketing and other business information, and any other material or information identified at the time of disclosure as confidential or proprietary, or which otherwise one would reasonably expect to be confidential or proprietary. Recipient's obligations of confidentiality hereunder shall not apply to information that: (a) is or becomes public through no fault or breach by Recipient, (b) is or becomes known to Recipient directly or rightfully through a third party without an obligation of confidentiality, (c) is independently developed by Recipient without use of or access or reference to Discloser's Confidential Information or (d) is disclosed with the prior written approval of Discloser on a case-by-case basis. Recipient may disclose Discloser's Confidential Information as required by law or court order provided: (1) Recipient promptly notifies Discloser in writing of the requirement for disclosure; and (2) discloses only that specific portion of the Confidential Information which Recipient is required to produce by such law or court order. Recipient will not disseminate or disclose Confidential Information to any third party, and will protect Discloser's Confidential Information with the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information of a similar nature, but in no event less than a reasonable degree of care. Recipient will use Discloser's Confidential Information solely to the extent necessary to exercise its rights and obligations under this Agreement and will ensure that Confidential Information is disclosed only to its Personnel with a bona fide need to know and who are under binding written obligations of confidentiality with Recipient to protect Discloser's Confidential Information. All Confidential Information is and shall remain the sole property of Discloser, and Recipient shall not acquire any rights or licenses therein except as expressly set forth in this Agreement. Recipient will within ten (10) days of receipt of Discloser's written request, and at Discloser's option, either return all Confidential Information including all copies in any form or certify in writing that all such Confidential Information has been destroyed. Recipient agrees that any actual or threatened violations of this section 7 may result in irreparable harm to Discloser for which monetary damages may not be sufficient and that Discloser may be entitled to seek a temporary restraining order and a preliminary or permanent injunction without posting bond against recipient in addition to any other rights or remedies the Discloser may have at law or in equity. The prevailing Party shall be entitled to recover from the other Party its legal fees and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred in enforcing this section.

8. Information Security.

8.1 CMRI represents that it has and will maintain, at a minimum, industry standard technical and organizational measures and controls for data and information security, and CMRI will update those with equivalent or more protective measures and controls as needed to remain compliant at all times with then-current industry standard practices.

8.2 Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Services provided under this Agreement do not require the collection and/or processing of Personal Information or PHI on behalf of Customer. CMRI shall not process any Personal Information or PHI in connection with this Agreement or any Service Order and/or SOW hereunder, unless and until the parties have agreed to a separate written agreement covering such processing of Personal Information or PHI in form and substance mutually acceptable to CMRI and Customer. "Personal Information" means: (1) any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person, device, or household, and (2) any information defined as "personally identifiable information," "personal information," "personal data" or similar terms as such terms are defined under applicable data security or privacy laws.

8.3 CMRI agrees that it shall at all times comply with its privacy policy located at <https://www.qmri.com/privacy-policy/> ("Privacy Policy") and with all applicable privacy laws.

9. Relationship of the Parties.

9.1 CMRI is and shall at all times be deemed to be an independent contractor to Customer and nothing in this Agreement is intended to or shall be construed to establish between the parties any relationship of partnership, joint venture, joint employment, employment, franchise, or agency between the parties. Neither party has any authority, and shall not represent that it has authority, to assume or create any obligation, express or implied, on behalf of the other party.

9.2 As an independent contractor, CMRI shall be solely responsible for determining the means and methods for performing the Services.

9.3 Employee Non-Solicitation. Customer agrees that it will not solicit for hire nor hire as an employee or retain as an independent contractor any employee of CMRI that has performed Services on behalf of Customer pursuant to a Service Order, at any time during the term of this Agreement and for a period of one year thereafter, except with prior written consent of CMRI. The forgoing restriction shall not apply to the employment of any person who responds to any general recruitment advertisement by Customer in the normal course of business, without specifically targeting or approaching the personnel of CMRI.

10.2. In no event will the foregoing coverage limits affect or limit in any manner CMRI's contractual liability for indemnification or any other liability of CMRI under this Agreement.

11. Indemnification.

11.1 General Indemnification. CMRI shall indemnify, hold harmless and, at Customer's request, defend Customer and its officers, directors employees, successors and assigns, from all losses, liabilities, damages, demands, suits, causes of action, judgments, costs or expenses (including court costs and reasonable legal fees) arising from any personal injury, including death and disease, or damage to property caused by or resulting from the acts or omissions of CMRI's Personnel.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, CMRI shall have no liability with respect to any claim that arises from (x) the use, operation, or combination of the Services with programs, data, equipment, or materials not approved for use with the Services if such infringement would have been avoided by the use of the Services without such other programs, data, equipment, or materials; (y) Customer's modification of the Services; or (z) Customer's use or distribution of any release of the Services for which infringement could have been avoided by Customer's use of a superseding version of the Services provided or made available by CMRI at no additional cost to Customer. If Customer's use of the Services is, or in either parties' reasonable opinion is likely to be, enjoined due to an infringement claim, CMRI shall at its election and expense promptly take at least one of the following actions: (i) procure for Customer the right to continue using the infringing Services under the terms of this Agreement; (ii) replace or modify the infringing Services so that they are non-infringing and substantially equivalent in function and performance to the enjoined Services; or (iii) if options (i) and (ii) above cannot be accomplished despite CMRI's reasonable efforts, then CMRI may terminate the Service Order relating to the infringing Services and CMRI will refund to Customer the unused portion of any prepaid amounts paid by Customer in connection therewith. The foregoing shall be the exclusive remedy of Customer for a breach of the warranty of non-infringement.

11.3 Customer Content. Customer shall defend, indemnify and hold CMRI harmless from and against any loss, damage or costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, and witness fees) incurred in connection with any third-party claim made or brought against CMRI arising out of or related to (i) any images, data and other information provided to CMRI or uploaded or imported into the Services ("Customer Content"), (ii) Customer's use of the Services (except for infringement claims addressed above) and the results obtained therefrom, (iii) the use of the Services or the data or results therefrom by any third party on behalf of Customer; and/or (iv) Customer's violation of any applicable laws.

An Indemnifying Party may not enter into any settlement without the express written consent of the Indemnified Party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld), unless such settlement (i) releases Indemnified Party in full for all claims, (ii) does not impose any obligation on Indemnified Party, other than ceasing use of the infringing Services and (iii) includes no admission of any kind by or on behalf of Indemnified Party.

12. Limitation of Liability.

12.1. NEITHER PARTY SHALL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING ANY DAMAGES FOR LOST PROFITS INCURRED BY EITHER PARTY OR ANY THIRD PARTY, WHETHER IN ACTION, CONTRACT OR TORT, EVEN IF THE OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

17.4 Assignment. Neither party may assign this Agreement (whether by operation of law, change of control, or otherwise) without the other party's prior written consent; except that CMRI may assign this Agreement as part of a merger, consolidation, reorganization, change of control or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets. Any attempt or purported assignment in violation of the foregoing shall be void.
